Winter Reading Series The One in a Million Boy, by Monica Wood

General Meeting and Book Review
Join us for dinner and discussion

Miss Ona Vitkus is a crochety old lady – she's 104. She has been dissatisfied with a series of boy scouts who have been assigned to help her, but then an unusual little boy comes along who sparks in her a renewed zest for life. The boy is only in Ona's life fleetingly, but his influence on Ona and, through her, on his own divorced parents lives on in profound ways. This book is a propelling and uplifting read. Enjoy!
